fort, Germany.

All the senatorial candidates arrived in the city today and took possession of their headquarters at the Park hotel.
Some members of the assembly arrived with the inaugural party, and the senatorial campaign here may be considered fairly started.

Not a little of the interest of the day attached to the appointments. They

WILL HAVE MONEY TO BURN

There Will Be Roll-Calling Fun at the Opera House Thursday Evening

The watermelon transformation scene and cake walk in the last act on "Money to Burn" which comes to the Myers Grand is without a question the swellest bit of stage art that has been attempted in years. The entire company take part in this scene and the interest runs high to see who wins the cake. Every member tries very hard to be selected as the winner, the audience being the judges. The scenery for this act was painted by the celebrated scenic artist, Louis Kindt, who painted the cycloramas of the Battle of Lookout Mountain, Siege of Vicksburg, the Battle of Atlanta and others.

NUPTIAL EVENTS
OF LOCAL INTERESTM'GOWAN-SHOPBELL WEDDING
THIS MONTH.

The Present Season Before Lent Promises to Be Rather a Lively One in the Way of Marriages—The Engagement of Two Other Well Known Couples.

The wedding of Emmett D. McGowan and Katherine Shopbell will be solemnized this month at the spacious Milwaukee avenue home of the prospective bride's mother, Mrs. Martha Shopbell.
The affair will be a quiet one, and only immediate relatives and a few invited friends will witness the ceremony.

The serving of a wedding repast will follow after which the happy couple will take a wedding trip, and on their return will take up their home in the spacious Alexander Graham residence on Milton avenue, recently purchased by Mr. Mc-Gowan.

The groom-to-be needs no introduction to the public. As an able lawyer and foremost citizen he stands in the front ranks, and is respected by all. The prospective bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Martha Shopbell, and is a young lady who has grown to womanhood here,
where she is a prime favorite.

Schaller-Ranous.

A nuptial event of special interest,
and one which will soon be solemnized, is that of Charles H. Schaller and Miss Helen E. Ranous, both of this city. The groom-to-be is a partner in the Janesville Steam laundry, and is a young man who numbers his friends by the score.
The prospective bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ranous, and is a young lady who has spent the greater portion of her life in the Bower
City making warm friends of all.

A handsome home built by the groom is now nearing completion on South Main street and is a structure that is a credit to that section of the city.

Brewer-Brownell.

The engagement of Chester L. Brewer
and Miss Grace Brownell, of this city, has been announced. The prospective bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brownell, and is a young lady held in the highest esteem. The groom-to-be is popular in local business and social circles. He was a member of the '97 class at the State University, and for four years was a member of the track team. He also distinguished himself as a member of the foot-ball and base ball teams. He is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta and the T. N. E. Both are possessed of a host of friends who will extend congratulations.

Think Morrison Will Be Bishop.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—Among the local clergy of the Protestant Episcopal church there does not exist a doubt that the Rev. Dr. Morrison of the Church of the Epiphany will be consecrated as bishop of Iowa. There is, in fact, a belief that the indorsement by the standing committees of the church of Dr. Morrison's election to the Iowa episcopate will be nearly unanimous. This view prevails in spite of the widely published fact that one standing committee—that of Nebraska —rejected the confirmation of the bishop-elect of Iowa, and notwithstanding the persistent attempt of a certain faction in the Iowa church to resent the Rev. Dr. Green's defeat by opposing Dr. Morrison's confirmation.

Miners in Awe of Troops.

Pana, Ill., Jan. 3.—The reported massing in Pana of 1,000 union miners from Centralia and southern Illinois towns for the purpose of driving out negro miners failed to materialize Monday. Lieut. Col. Wells, in command of the three companies of the Fifth infantry, had received re-enforcements and placed a heavy provost guard on duty. Mine operators who have heretofore been securing the release of negroes have notified Sheriff
Downey they will sign no more bonds.
The county jail is fast being filled with negroes. Twenty are now confined there.

Protests Against Expansion.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 3.—At a meeting of the Anti-Imperialistic league it was reported that the direct protests against any extension of the sovereignty of the United States over the Philippine islands are coming in —though the league in increasing numbers from all parts of the United States. Irving Winslow, secretary of the league, will visit Washington this week to interview several senators who have expressed a desire for a conference.

EASTERN LEAF FIRM
OPEN HOUSE HERE

TO OCCUPY BUCKLE FACTORY
BUILDING.

Marquette & Co., of New York City, Decide to Locate Here and Will Employ One Hundred Hands—Are Well Known Buyers—Other Warehouses Soon in Operation.

Another leaf tobacco firm has decided to locate in Janesville, which will add just that much more activity to the local field. Marquette & Co., of New York City, have leased the unoccupied space at the Woodruff factory on North Franklin street, and are now having it refitted for immediate occupation. They will open up within the next few days with a working force of one hundred girls, and with enough leaf on hand for several weeks' work.

Marquette & Co. are one of the best known firms in the east, and as extensive buyers they stand in the front rank.
Mr. Haskins, of this city, will act as local manager, and a better posted man would be hard to find.

George Woodruff, who has charge of the factory, now has a force of men at work making needed improvements. A new engine and boiler have but recently been placed in the building, and no expense is being spared to make the structure complete in every way.

Within the next few days several of the local leaf tobacco warehouses will be running with full force, which means the employment of several hundred hands mostly girls. It is this time of the year that the housekeepers about town begin to realize that it is a hard matter to keep a hired girl. Dozens of girls—in fact a whole army of them—work through the summer, fall,
and till midwinter, when they quickly
leave housework to enter the leaf tobacco warehouses. They easily make twice as much money there as they do performing household duties, and have their evenings and Sundays to themselves. Then they are practically their own bosses, as they are paid according to what they are able to do.

Local leaf buyers have been active of late, and have been doing considerable driving over the county. Each seems anxious to lay hands on the '98 crop, and already some extra high prices have been paid.

Several eastern firms have also sent representatives into the local field of late, and this fact alone is one that has worried the buyers of Rock county much.

When the local warehouses are running in full blast, as they all will be within the next few days, it will mean the hauling of hundreds of loads from all parts of the county, and the putting in circulation of thousands of dollars.

Stone Will Oppose McKisson.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 3.—Judge Carlos
M. Stone of the common pleas court has consented to stand as a candidate for the republican nomination for the mayoralty in opposition to Mayor Mc-Kisson. Judge Stone has been promised the support of several organizations of the so-called Hanna republicans, and the campaign promises to be an interesting one.

Heavy Snowfall in the West.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 3.—Eastern Washington, from Snake river to the northern boundary, is covered with new snow, ranging in depth from three inches to as many feet. Ten inches fell in Spokane, but a high wind drifted badly, partially obstructing streetcar traffic. All trains into Spokane are nearly on time, but officials expect trouble and are preparing to send out relays of snow plows.

Petition from Central China.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 3.—Lord Charles Beresford is taking back to England from the orient an interesting petition given him by the British residents of Central China. Sweeping wants are outlined, and an alliance with the United States is proposed to take concerted action against the closing of any doors to missionary work
and trade now open in the empire.

Says Gomez Power Is Gone.

London, Jan. 3.—The Havana correspondent of the Times, referring to the refusal of Gen. Maximo Gomez to surrender his arms until an independent government is granted, says: "I believe the influence of Gen. Gomez with the rebels is completely ended."

French Words Are Expunged.

Berlin, Jan. 3.—The Army Gazette
publishes an imperial cabinet order substituting German for words of French origin now employed in the army. The order declares that Emperor William is desirous of promoting the use of pure German in the army.

Ex-Gov. Campbell Is Improving.

New York, Jan. 3.—Ex-Gov. James E. Campbell of Ohio, who has been confined to his room in a hotel in this city for several days from illness, is reported to be much improved. His physician said he believed the ex-governor to be out of danger.

PLANS FOR FIXING
REBEL AGUINALDO

HE WILL HAVE TO BE DISPOSED OF SOME WAY.

Talk of Giving Him an Office Or a Pocket Full of Money—Disagreement as to the Disposition of Cuban Customs Dues—Gen. Otis Reports
Better Prospects.

Washington, Jan. 3.—[Special]—A dispatch from Gen. Otis read this morn-ing's cabinet meeting giving reassuring information in regard to the situation at Hilo. Otis says disquieting reports from the scene of the disturbance proved unwarranted, and he believed a conflict of arms will be averted. The dispatch is evidently based on direct recent information from Gen. Miller. The belief now is that the native troops will submit quietly to the authority of the United States.

CUBANS BEHAVE WELL.

Gen. Brooke Feels Encouraged by the Prospect Thus Far.

Washington, Jan. 3.—[Special]— Much satisfaction is expressed here over the peaceful occupation of the city of Havana. It had been feared that disorder would mark the event, and preparations had been made to suppress any demonstrations likely to end in riot. But the Cubans behaved themselves much better than was expected, and it was found necessary to make but few arrests, and these for but trivial misdemeanors. Today the city is quiet, and although merchants show some timidity there is little ground for apprehension that the public peace will be disturbed. Gen. Brooke feels encouraged by the outlook, and men of means in the community are beginning to manifest a disposition to reach out for business. Gen. Brooke is of the opinion that if the Cubans were left to themselves there would be no danger of trouble. The only difficulty will arise from the intrigues of a few small bore political leaders who are striving for positions which will afford them an easy living without the necessity for work.

WANT THE ORDER RESCINDED.

Gen. Wood Trying to Secure Revocation of Brooke's Customs Order.

Santiago, Jan. 3.—[Special]—Gen.
Wood, military governor of the province of Santiago, leaves tomorrow for Washington. It is supposed his visit to the American capital relates to Gen.
Brooke's order that all customs receipts
be sent to Havana each week, the effect of which would be the abandonment of improvements now in progress in Santiago. The business men insist that Wood should not be hampered in his efforts to make the improvements.

THE ARMY BEEF.

Officers Will Soon Be Ready to Investigate
Its Quality.

Washington, Jan. 3.—[Special]—The board of army officers appointed to inquire into the alleged bad condition of the beef furnished the soldiers met today. The session was devoted to mapping out the program.

teen minutes ahead of schedule time.

Another Change in the Northwestern

William K. Porter, who for the past three years has acted in the capacity of Northwestern railroad in this city, re-

THE BANK SALOON
CLOSED BY POLICE

FOURTEEN "DESPOILERS" ARE SURPRISED.

Several of Them Were Women Who Wouldn't Fill the Bill As Sunday School Teachers—Five Are Arraigned in the Municipal Court, Plead Guilty and Pay Fines.

Chief of Police Hogan and Officers
Brown and Bencke started out making
New Year's calls on Sunday evening.

James F. Ennis, who is proud of the fact that he is proprietor of "The Bank" saloon at 21 South Main street, is alleged to have opened up his place of business Sunday evening for the purpose of receiving callers. Mr. Ennis had no more than unlocked the doors than in with him marched a number of his friends who at once patted him on the back and whispered in his ear that he was a good fellow.

Among the callers were several women,
and just for the novelty of the thing
one of the "ladies" is said to have started the conversation by referring to the fine horses and carriages kept by her father at their suburban home, and of how hard her parents found it to get good servants.

That settled it. Several bottles were opened and enough liquor was disposed of to float the Maine.

One fellow cut into the argument and some one soaked him in the eye, and then, as they say in Texas, "there was three minutes rough house."

In the general bustle that followed some one spied the familiar face of Chief Hogan peering in at the front window.
Chief Hogan and Officers Brown and Bencke then walked in, and after looking over the situation found some tour-teen inmates within, all having their version of a good time. Four were placed under arrest and in the municipal court this morning Theresa Jones and Laura Williams pleaded guilty to the charge of drunk and disorderly conduct, and each paid $11 fine.

J. Williams pleaded guilty to the same charge and paid $5.

James F. Ennis pleaded guilty to keeping his saloon open on Sunday, and he was fined $25 and costs, or a total of $27.41.

Mr. Ennis will in all probability lose his job, and a new man be placed in charge of the place, which is the property of the Schlitz Brewing company of Milwaukee.

house on Emerson street was struck by a chair, and his skull fractured. His tain region is experiencing all the

LOCAL LABOR UNIONS
RENT THE ARMORY

WELL KNOWN DANCING HALL
THUS SAVED.

Commencing With Today Their Lease Runs For One Year at a Rental of Four Hundred Dollars—Will Sublet
to Dancing Parties Only—Others
Would Lose It.

The armory, the finest dancing hall in southern Wisconsin, which has shelter
of the grandest balls ever given in Janesville, will not be turned into a harness factory or used for any other purpose for one year at least.

Today Dennis Hayes and Michael Hayes, as owners of the building, signed a lease transferring the armory hall for a term of one year to the local Federated Trades Council. The lease says nothing about any future privileges, but clearly states that the rent for twelve months commencing with January 3, 1899, shall be $400 and that the hall
be rented for no other purpose than for dances.

It will be good news to the dancing public and especially to those who have parties on the tapis at the Armory, to know that the favorite hall is still to be at their disposal. The Trades Council will remove to their new quarters, at once, and will make several improvements in different parts of the hall.

The making out of this lease does away with a military company for at least a year. The members of Co. A still owe the Hayes Bros. $250 back rent, and just how and when they are to pay this amount remains to be seen.

A special meeting of the Trades Council will be held this evening at 8:15. All members are requested to be present to finish up business pertaining to their new quarters.

DEMOCRATIC POWWOW

Jones, Altgeld and Stone Confer as to the Issues of the Future.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—[Special]—Chairman Jones, of the Democrat National committee, Ex-Gov. Altgeld, of Illinois, and Ex-Gov. Stone, of Missouri, held a long conference here this morning.
Judge McConnell's speech declaring that the silver issue must be dropped in 1900 is believed to have been discussed.
The conference, however, say the matter of ways and means was considered.
Mr. Jones is expected to define the party's attitude on the expansion question before he leaves.

The mayoralty fight in Chicago may also be taken up. Altgeld's independent candidacy against Harrison is causing much friction in local democratic circles, and great influence is being brought to bear to induce Altgeld to quit.

NEWS FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

Gathered By The Gazette's Correspondents.

THE GAZETTE AGENCY
W. W. CLARKE, Manager.
Milton, Wis., Jan. 3, 1899.

A very pretty home wedding took place New Year's eve, at the residence of Mrs. S. I. Spaulding in this village, when her daughter, Jennette S., was united in marriage to D. A. Holmes. The house was handsomely decorated for the event and the bride and groom entered the room to the strains of a wedding march skillfully rendered by Miss Grace Spaulding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. L. McClelland, pastor of the Congregational church. "Dave" and "Nettie" as they are best known to our citizens, very sensibly decided to dispense with the usual tour and have settled themselves down to a quiet married life in this village. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends and admirers for a prosperous future. There were many valuable reminders of the occasion from present and absent friends and an elegant lunch was served. Those present, in addition to the families of the bride and groom, were Messrs. James and Edward Davis, William Eddon, of Janesville, Willard and Allen, of Madison, Austin, of Lima, Joseph Wilkins, of Allen's Grove, E. H. and W. H. Waterman and O. N. Spaulding of this village. Mesdames Midgely, Brown, Hadden, of Janesville, Allen, of Madison and Spaulding, of Milton; Misses Davis, Hadden, of Janesville, Spaulding and Davidson, of this place.

The annual business meeting of the Seventh-day Baptist church and society was held Sunday. The report of the treasurer showed that all demands for the fiscal year had been liquidated and that there was a balance on the credit side of the ledger enabling the society to begin the New Year free from debt. At 1 o'clock the annual dinner was served by the ladies, a veritable feast of good things, and when all had been warmed and filled, to the number of two hundred and fifty, there was gathered several baskets for the delectation of absent ones.

The business of the postoffice in this village for the quarter ending December 31, 1898, was the largest in its history, and the number of money orders issued in December was 262, the greatest number on record. Prosperity seems to have hit the mail service right in the eye.

Clinton

Clinton, Jan. 3.—The many friends of Lillian Soper are pleased to see her out again after her long illness. Jerome Baker braved the low temperature and rough roads Friday and returned to White-water overland. Mrs. Baker remains for a few days longer. Lake were in Milwaukee for a few days visiting Mr. Thomas, who is in the city studying dentistry. Much standing corn is being got out this week; the early snow having made it impossible to do the work sooner. Grace Murray narrowly escaped serious injury by being thrown from a carriage in a runaway. As it was she was fortunately only slightly bruised. M. P. and Mrs. Treat entertained a company of neighbors and friends Thursday evening and the following evening invited the ministers of the place to a bounteous supper prepared for the occasion. Corwin Smith's horse got away from him while returning from the wedding at J. Murray's, south of town, and demolished the buggy. Mrs. Dr. Jones attended the wedding of Miss Carrie Spaulding, who was married to David Holmes at Milton on Saturday. The pond on the vacant lot at the corner of Church and Milwaukee streets affords the youngsters much sport now-a-days. Many of our streets are also supplied with small skating places. SCHOOL BEGINS AGAIN

Work is Resumed This Morning Among the City Youth

The public schools threw open their doors this morning, and within was the busy hum of children's voices as they dropped over their lessons. The holiday vacation was brief—not half long enough to suit the youngsters, but too long for the perfect enjoyment of their parents and neighbors.

The new term begins under the most favorable auspices. The attendance is large in all the grades, and the teachers will have little leisure time at their disposal.

How the Prevent Pneumonia.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of la grippe. During the epidemic of la grippe a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or la grippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds or la grippe. Every bottle warranted. For sale by Peoples' Drug Co., corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

A COMMON CASE OF PILES?

It May Lead to Serious Results.

When people generally understand that all such fatal diseases as fistula, ulcer of the rectum, fissure, etc., almost invariably begin in a simple case of piles, they will learn the wisdom of taking prompt treatment for the first appearance of trouble in this quarter. The Pyramid Pile Cure will certainly cure every form of piles, itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles, and hundreds of lives have been saved by using this cheap but effective remedy right at the start, because at such a time a single package will effect a cure, while in the chronic, deep seated cases, several packages are sometimes necessary before a lasting cure is effected.

Physicians are using the Pyramid Pile Cure in preference to surgical operations and with uniform success. The remedy is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co., of Marshall, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere at 50

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

107 B. C.—Marcus Tullius Cicero, Roman orator, born; assassinated 43 B. C.
1740—Benedict Arnold born in Norwich, Conn.; died 1801.
1777—Washington defeated the British at Princeton, N. J. Before reaching Princeton the commander detached General Mercer, with 350 Philadelphia militiamen, to seize the bridge over Stony creek and cut communication between Princeton and Trenton. The movement led to a collision, in which Mercer was killed while heroically spurring on his men. Washington led two regiments of regulars to the aid of Mercer and repulsed the British, thus gaining control of the camp at Princeton.
1830—George Henry Boker, author and poet, died in Philadelphia; born there 1823.
1836—Dr. George Marks, famous entomologist, died in Washington; born 1810.
1898—Ext. Governor L. S. Ross of Texas, noted Confederate veteran, died at College Station, Tex.; born 1838.

The Janesville men who fell under the ban of the state game warden, do not belong to the pot-hunting class. One was punished almost without any cause whatever, while the other suffered for a technical violation of the law, after having studiously observed its provisions for months. The third one was within an interpretation of the law given by the warden himself, but still a technical violator. All pleaded guilty rather than go to the expense and trouble of fighting the case, and were in no way disgraced. So much for the Janesville men. However, there were many other arrests made at Koshkonong, where the violations were without extenuating circumstances, and the men arrested were "pot-hunters" and nothing else.

Before complaining because General Lee was not made governor of Cuba, people should remember that the place logically belonged to General Brooke. General Merritt had his opportunity in the Philippines; General Shafter at Santiago; General Miles in Puerto Rico; and a dozen others in Cuba besides. General Brooke, however, had no opportunity until now. Hence, he being one of the ranking officers of the regular army, and of unquestioned military genius, the place belonged to him by every right and precedent. General Lee has been given a good place, and doubtless feels that full justice has been done him.

However, there is no desire to limit Mayor Thoroughgood's speeches. The mayor has a habit of saying what he thinks in plain English—a characteristic that people always admire—whether they agree with the sentiments expressed or not.

And on the same day that the stars and stripes floated from the palace staff at Havana, they were also raised on the stub mast of the wrecked Maine in the harbor.

The inauguration ceremonies at Madison were very simple this year. This is as it should be.

The "embalmed beef" discussion will certainly result in the embalming of someone's future.

Big Blaze at Carthage.

Watertown, N. Y., Jan. 3.—The village of Carthage was visited by a serious fire Sunday morning, which laid the business portion of the town in ruins and destroyed about $150,000 worth of property. The extreme cold froze the water and the firemen were unable to work the engine for some headway. During the progress of the fire a can of powder stored in John Rogers' hardware store exploded, blowing part of the front of the building out upon the street. Some of the firemen had narrow escapes.

Pingree Takes the Oath.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 3.—Gov. Pingree and the state officers-elect took the oath of office at noon Monday in the executive parlors of the state capitol. Chief Justice of the supreme court administered the oath in the presence of a large attendance.

The legislature will convene on Wednesday at 12 o'clock, when Gov. Pingree will read his message.

Emperor William Is Better.

Berlin, Jan. 3.—The emperor was confined to his bed Sunday with an attack of influenza. He is better, his fever having abated. It is stated that the emperor's indisposition has renewed his old ear trouble, and that this is delaying his complete recovery. CONGRESS TO MAKE HISTORY.

The Present Session Will Be a Memorable One.

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION UP.

Ratification of the Peace Treaty and Passage of a Nicaraguan Canal Bill Claim the Attention of Congressmen
—To Reorganize the Army.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Congress will reassemble Wednesday to enter upon a busy and uninterrupted season of legislative work which will end at noon, March 4. In some respects it will be one of the most remarkable sessions for many years.

Two events will contribute to this fact—the ratification of the treaty with Spain in the senate, and the consideration and probable passage of a Nicaragua canal bill. If the latter occurs the closing session of the Fifty-fifth congress will go down in history as marking the beginning of an epoch of great development in the commercial prosperity of the United States. There is an earnest determination upon the part of an influential and vigorous element in the national legislature to bring about this consummation so devoutly to be desired.

Progress upon the Nicaragua canal bill will be materially hastened by the presentation of the report of the Walker commission. The president will send this report to the house and senate before the end of the week and the two committees having charge of the subject will be placed in possession of information of inestimable value to them. With the recommendations of the executive in favor of the plan, the endorsement of the press of the country, and the demands of commercial interests and the public at large, this presentation of official data upon the cost and the method of construction gives to congress all the inspiration that is needed to proceed immediately upon some definite plans.

The house committee on interstate commerce has been awaiting the receipt of the Walker report, and also some definite expression of the views of the senate, before passing upon any of the bills now pending before the committee. The chairman of the committee, Mr. Hepburn of Iowa, has expressed his views upon the kind of a bill to be reported. He wants the government not only to construct the canal, but to acquire and own the territory immediately adjacent to the route. He thinks it will be necessary to do this in order to protect the canal from damage in case of war.

While different ideas are entertained as to the nature of the auspices under which the canal is to be constructed, there is no disposition upon the part of any faction of the advocates of the canal project to insist upon their own particular ideas to the extent of endangering the safety of a bill. On the contrary, there seems to be a general desire to get together speedily upon a bill of such a character, by whomsoever proposed, as will command the largest following and most earnest support in both houses of congress.

An army bill on the lines of the Hull measure, with an increase in the navy and marine corps, is assured. The coast defenses and new fighting ships will be taken care of in the appropriation bills.

McKinley at Romero's Funeral.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Public funeral services over the remains of the late Don Matias Romero, the ambassador from Mexico to the United States, who died Friday morning, were held at St. Matthew's church Sunday. Distinguished honor to the memory of the deceased was manifested in the presence at the ceremonies of President McKinley, Vice-President Hobart, nearly all the members of the cabinet, representatives of the entire diplomatic corps, officers of the army and navy and private citizens. At the conclusion of the service the body was taken to Mount Olivet cemetery and placed temporarily in a vault pending its removal to Mexico.

English Warning to France.

London, Jan. 2.—The Times in a vigorous article warns France not to press her pretensions at Shanghai, and says that if she does not heed the warning Great Britain will enforce her own legitimate claims against France, not heeding the Chinese government, which is merely a machine to register external pressure. The article is similar in tone to those published at the time of the Fashoda crisis, and indicates the beginning of another acute public struggle between British and French diplomacy.

Want McKinley to Attend.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 2.—Owing to delay in hearing from some prominent speakers expected at the annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers in this city Jan. 24, 25 and 26, the program has not yet been completed. Efforts are being made to secure the attendance of President McKinley.

Emperor William Has the Grip.

Berlin, Jan. 2.—Emperor William did not appear at the New Year's reception in the royal palace Sunday. It was explained to the foreign ambassadors that his majesty was confined to his bed with a severe cold and an attack of grip.

TO DISCOURAGE LYNCHING.

Indiana May Make Cities and Counties Financially Responsible.

Wabash, Ind., Jan. 2.—Under the supervision of Gov. Mount Attorney General Ketchum is drafting a bill which will be introduced in the legislature and which the state authorities will industriously exert themselves to have enacted into law for the suppression of the mob spirit which in certain sections of the commonwealth has run riot.

The governor has concluded that it is futile to attempt to secure convictions of leaders of mobs, who are generally influential, if not prominent, in their communities, by local juries, and it is impossible to invoke state aid in season to prevent lynchings.

It is proposed now to incorporate in the civil code a statute modeled after the laws in force in Ohio and Kansas, making a city liable in damages to the prisoner who is injured by a mob while in the custody of a peace officer, or to the relatives of a prisoner who suffers death at a mob's hands when the lynching happens in an incorporated town or city.

When the crime is perpetrated in the country the county may be made defendant in the damage suit.

Starvation Reigns in China.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 2.—Advices brought by the steamship Victoria say Szechuen merchants wired to Shanghai desiring that all shipments of goods into that province cease. The Yellow river floods have destroyed the crops and famine has resulted. Thousands of natives are starving. Thousands of other hungry and ragged refugees are moving down the river in boats only to find the walls of the cities lower down closed against the starving hordes.

Porter Calls Upon Faure.

Paris, Jan. 2.—Gen. Horace Porter, United States ambassador, and his staff made a New Year call upon President Faure, who, when responding to the congratulations of the diplomatic body, tendered through the papal nuncio, dwelt upon the love of France for peace and her endeavors to maintain it. General Zurlinden, military governor of Paris, at the head of a visiting party of officers of the Paris garrison, assured M. Faure of the army's fidelity and devotion to the republic.

Riots at Punta Arenas.

New York, Jan. 2.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: "Letters received from Punta Arenas announce that serious riots have occurred there between the sailors of the Italian cruiser Piemonte and the Chilean warship Casma. About twenty men were wounded. The national guard was called to arms to re-establish order. The rioters were arrested and put at the disposition of their respective commanders."

Black Flag Is Again Raised.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 2.—The steamship Victoria brings news that a panic prevails throughout Szechuen province, China, caused by the rehoisting of the black flag of rebellion by the notorious outlaw Yumantze. The French missionary Fleury remains in Yumantze's hands and hopes of saving him have been abandoned.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 2.—Brig.-Gen. John N. Andrews, who has had command of a brigade of volunteer troops, has arrived here to take command at Jefferson barracks. He will go in command of the troops to be sent from here to the Philippines, among which is the Twenty-fifth infantry, his old regiment.

Bolivia's Insurrection Grows.

London, Jan. 2.—The Lima correspondent of the Times says: "A serious revolution is now proceeding in the republic of Bolivia. The transit trade, by way of Mollendo, Peru, is interrupted. Ecuador is also much disturbed, but Peru is perfectly tranquil."

PLEDGE SIGNERS ENJOY BANQUET

NOTABLE GATHERING HELD
LAST EVENING.

Between Four and Five Hundred People Participated in the Meeting—Good Speeches Prevalent and the Y. M. C. A. Band Furnished the Inspiration—Murphy Present.

Between four and five hundred people assembled at the Y. M. C. A. building last evening and participated in what proved to be one of the most interesting banquets ever held within the limits of the city of Janesville.

It was held in the interest of the men who had signed the Francis Murphy temperance pledge, and the gathering was one that all present felt highly pleased with. Dozens of men who have spent the greater portions of their lives in this city as drunkards, being a curse to their families and homes, were there sitting elbow to elbow with the leading business men of the city.

What a change! It was one that those drinking men fully appreciated, and only one glance was necessary to be impressed.

The banquet last evening was given by five of the local evangelical churches, and nothing was neglected. At 5 o'clock the guests began to arrive, and it seemed as though every other man was either accompanied by his sweetheart or wife. A hearty welcome awaited all, there being special committees appointed to look after this part of the program. At 7 o'clock all adjourned to the large hall on the second floor, where four long tables were in waiting.

Seated on the platform was the Y. M. C. A. band, and under the able leadership of Prof. Taylor, they rendered several excellent selections, which were heartily cheered. Rev. W. A. Hall then asked the blessing. Dr. James Mills, as president of the local temperance organization, presided. He was the first speaker of the evening, and said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen:—It affords me great pleasure and enjoyment to say a few words on this occasion.

"We are certainly under many obligations to the Y. M. C. A. people for inviting us here this evening to enjoy and relish this elegant banquet.

"We sincerely thank them for their hospitality, friendship and good-will. We would be pleased to have other societies and churches follow their example, and we assure you that an army of Murphy soldiers will gladly respond to the invitation at any time.

"What an honor and blessing to have Francis Murphy with us this evening. The grandeur and splendor of his character has moved our city and country. His influence goes radiating in all directions, through unknown channels, a pure light, a silent work, its results following as the shadow follows the sun. He has sown the seeds; we want him to return in one year and see the harvest. 35 pledges in one week.

"That man stands out before men in the glorious light of his own perfect example. The moral teachings and examples of this man have brought happiness into more homes than any other influence combined. Do we not see the glorious light coming up out of darkness, and men everywhere being made better? Yes, it is just what is needed to direct and restrain men and carry his human nature to the highest point of perfection.

"Let us go to men and invite them to come and join us. We want to know each other better, and let us come together and get acquainted."

John H. Jones, secretary of the same temperance order, was then called on. He said that he was no talker but that he was glad to be present. Three weeks ago, he said, he signed the Murphy pledge, and he never felt better in his life, and if he was to live 2,000 years he never would break that pledge.

Rev. W. A. Hall was the third speaker on the program, and he stated that he felt wonderfully gratified as the result of the work. God help us all to be masters of the situation.

Otis H. Brand was the next called on, and in a short but telling address he plainly indicated that his heart and soul were in the movement. He stated that for years he had personally known many of the men who had signed the pledge, and that he knew they would keep their obligation.

Rev. A. C. Kempton was the next speaker in order, and he at once won popularity by stating that he was pleased to see so many ladies present. His remarks were along the line of temperance, and were closely listened to by all.

Al. Smith, who is one of the hardest workers in the interest of the cause, then stepped forward and stated how thirty men had signed the pledge last week at his place of business.

President Mills then stated that the next speaker of the evening was one of the youngest men in the medical society. He then introduced Dr. J. B. Whiting, who was greeted with loud applause. In his usual thrilling way the speaker delivered an address that proved one of the greatest treats of the evening. Dr. Whiting classed Mr. Murphy as the friend of man, and spoke at length of the good work accomplished here by him. He illustrated how drink had gone in its deadly work on men once prominent in Janesville whom the speaker had personally known for the past thirty years, and whom he had seen go to drunkards' graves.

Rev. W. W. Woodside then spoke and paid Dr. Whiting a compliment by stating that the divines were evidently not in it when it came to making an address. He hoped to see an army of blue ribboners here in Janesville, and the good work accomplished here of late ment happiness and plenty in all homes.

William W. Watt was the next speaker of the evening and his remarks tended to show how the local police and court officials regarded the Murphy movement as carried on in Janesville of late. Familiar faces who have inhabited the jail for the past ten or fifteen years were found missing this year, and the same state of affairs was found noticeable in the court room. The Murphy movement has brought this about.

Rev. Robert C. Denison in his usual pleasing way made a number of timely remarks, and showed that the temperance movement was on the right track. Rev. E. H. Pence, always equal to the situation, spoke of how the present movement was carried on by all, irrespective of creed. His remarks were most appropriate and brought forth loud and merited applause.

W. G. Palmer then spoke in behalf of the cause and of how he was heart and soul in the present movement.

Francis Murphy, who has been visiting at Indianapolis, was present, and his remarks were listened to with intense interest. He dwelt along the lines of past and future work in the interest of the cause for which he was working and plainly saw the good that is to result here in Janesville. The menu was as follows:

Pressed Veal	Ham
Cabbage Salad	Beans
	Pickles
	Vegetables
Sandwiches	Coffee
Cake	Ice Cream

The repast was in the hands of a committee of ladies from five of the local evangelical churches, who were under the able management of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. As a whole it was a decided success.

At a meeting of the Blue Ribboners held at the Y. M. C. A. building Sunday afternoon, the following board of directors was appointed to handle and map out future temperance work to be carried on in this city in the future:

Fred Davies,	N. Field,

DEATH OF GEORGE W. MEIGS

An Old Resident of This City Expires in Oklahoma.

George W. Meigs was born in Lynden, Vt., January 29, 1845. He came to this city with his parents in 1862, where he followed the occupation of contractor and builder. In 1878 he went west, and at the opening up of the Oklahoma country he entered as one of the first settlers, where he resided until his death, which occurred in Oklahoma City, December 30, 1898. The remains arrived in this city Monday, at 12:40, and were taken to the residence of his sister, Mrs. D. S. Cummings, where the funeral services were held at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. W. W. Woodside, of the First M. E. church. The interment was in Oak Hill cemetery.

The remaining members of the family are two sisters, Mrs. J. E. Croft and Mrs. D. S. Cummings, both of this city, and two brothers, Anson W. and M. Fayette Meigs, of San Francisco, Cal. The pall bearers were J. Wright, Charles Blay, E. J. Bennett, Ed. Kelly, P. Howland and Mr. Walker. Mr. Meigs possessed many excellent traits of character and was true to his friends. He will be missed.

GOLF HOUSE OPENED WITH DINNER PARTY

NEARLY TWO HUNDRED JOIN IN THE FUN.

Toasts and Music in the Big Basement, and Dancing in the Assembly Room—Along With the Merriment Come Figures That Encourage Members of the Two Clubs.

Golfers had a good time last night. For many a day they will tell of dedicating the Sinissippi Golf club house.

Nearly two hundred—a hundred and seventy-seven to be exact—of the Country club and the Golf club, found their way to the breezy slopes of Buckleton Links, between 5 and 6 o'clock. They filled the street cars to overflowing. Manager Green realizes now that the most profitable branch in town would be an extension up the Magnolia road. From the cars the guests were taken to the club house in carryalls.

High on the point of the hill the new golf house loomed up, ablaze with light. A great fire of cord wood crackled in the eight-foot fire place in the main assembly room, and throw fitful gleams out over the links. In the lower floor—an unbroken room nearly as large as Columbia hall—lights were seen in every window.

At the lower doorway carryalls discharged their freight. Wraps were laid off around the stoves, and dinner was spread on eight long tables that filled the basement from wall to wall. The ride and the novelty of the surroundings gave zest, and full justice was done to the New Year's dinner of the Sinissippi clan.

It was borne in upon President V. P. Richardson, of the Country club that other than silent tribute should be paid to the ladies for their share in the entertainment. He called on Judge C. L. Fifeid to express the club's appreciation. Judge Fifeid insisted modestly that he had been chosen either because he knew less of his subject "The Ladies" than any other man in the house, or else that he was known to be the only man whose wife would not make trouble if he ventured to speak well of other women. He then proceeded to speak well of them—extremely well and was gaining in fervor each moment when the tramp of John Phillip Sousa's Kazoo band was heard overhead. The band filed down the stairs and around the room. Yells of applause drowned Judge Fifeid's voice, and many of his choicest impromptu sallies were not preserved except in manuscript form.

There was a touching selection by the band in the course of which the bass drummer did a tremolo passage that blew out one wall lamp. People who sat near the band stand think the bass drummer was W. D. Williams; the flute, Charles B. Bostwick; the bass horn, Charles H. Gage; the slide, trombone, Mark Bostwick, and the cornet, Robert M. Bostwick. George M. McKee played a snare drum with one hand and a French horn with the other, while a man who looked like A. L. Bingham led the band. After the band had subsided Alexander Galbraith, the first president of the Golf club, was called upon to tell of the growth of golf in Scotland and America, and did so very gracefully.

Treasurer John G. Rexford was asked for a report and apologized before beginning. Figures were proverbially dry, he said, but then so were golfers and perhaps he might be justified on that account. His figures were far from tedious, however, for they showed the club to be possessed of $6000 worth of property with resources fully sufficient to meet all liabilities.

The band did another soulful turn that was received with howls of delight; and J. J. Hall was then brought forward to explain the charges made against him to the effect that he was a "stringer" and a "fusher." Mr. Hall cleared himself to the full satisfaction of everyone, and the band to show its sentiments played "Vanishing the Green," by W. H. Appleby.

Joseph P. Baker was asked to explain the unfortunate disagreement with Edgerton golfers over a golf prize offered by him at the Caledonian games.

"Mr. President and Fellow Golfers," said Mr. Baker, impressively, "I give you my word—"

Just what went with his word will never be known, for the band slipped its headstall and was half way to the quarter pole before it could be stopped. By this time Mr. Baker had forgotten his piece.

J. C. Wilmarth had to explain why it was necessary to go away from home to study "form" when O. Sutherland was here with his justly celebrated wuggle.

I. F. Wortendyke showed how much more baneful was Sunday golf than Sunday bass fishing, and Albert Schaller probably would have explained his method of golf instruction had not the band interfered.

C. C. MacLean recalled the early days of golf in Janesville when 100 was a good score on a nine hole course in Galbraith's stable field. They used one club apiece in those days and a lost ball ended the game.

M. G. Jeffris was asked to present the question of a suitable club costume, and offered a resolution in favor of the Highland kilt. He moved that members be compelled to wear this costume on all occasions, to prove their devotion to the game, and moved that C. C. MacLean as representing the Scotch nationality and W. W. Porter and John G. Rexford as representing the extremes of physical development be made a committee of three to prepare plans, specifications, by laws and ground rules for such a costume and appear in said costume at the next meeting of the club.

Stanley B. Smith opposed the kilt. He traced the game of golf back to Greece and wanted the club to adopt the flowing robes of Olympian days.

W. A. Jackson thought Mr. Smith had a personal motive, and presented a full size sketch of Mr. Smith in Highland attire. It was received with general approval, but the question of adopting the costume officially was left open.

At 8:30 o'clock the company adjourned to the assembly room for dancing. Before they went President Richardson was given a handsome set of tin golf clubs in a richly ornamented pasteboard caddy bag. T. S. Nolan made the presentation address, and singled out the club for fishing balls out of wells with professional accuracy.

Dancing was kept up until midnight, and by that time one hundred and seventy-seven people had said: "Well, wasn't it a howling success?"

Charles Lapp Dies in Ohio. Cleveland, O., Jan. 3.—Charles Lapp died Monday at the age of 52 years in a lodging house in Michigan street. He was at one time a prominent man, being chief bookkeeper of the Western Union Telegraph company in this city and a treasury inspector under President Cleveland. He had been separated from his family for several years at the time of his death.

THE CHANGE CAUSED NO GREAT SENSATION

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS AS-SUME THEIR DUTIES.

Everything Was Done Decently and in Order, and the Convenience of the Public Was Not Interfered With—All Public Affairs Are Being Attended to.

The county official, chosen at the November election, assumed the duties of their offices today; the sheriff alone excepted. Mr. Appleby entered upon the duties of that office on Saturday, Mr. Acheson having turned the keys over to his successor.

There was little apparent change in the several offices. Mr. Starr took charge of the office of county clerk, so long held by Mr. McIntyre, and seemed to feel perfectly at home amid his surroundings. Mr. Thorpe was busy putting the finishing touches upon his annual report of the financial condition of the county, and an extra wrinkle or two furrowed his brow as he endeavored to make the columns of figures agree. Mr. Goldin glanced over the books of the past two years in a sort of perfunctory manner, just to assure himself that no mistake had crept in, and sighed a sigh of great size when he found none.

Business in the county building went on about as usual. There was the usual crowd of visitors, but none of them seemed to pay any particular attention to the few new faces seen in the offices. The new sheriff had only a few writs to serve, and this was done with all due formality.

A stranger visiting the court house would have noticed nothing unusual in the aspect of affairs.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

One Hundred Men Imprisoned in a Mine at Carlinville, Ill.

COMPANY'S BUILDINGS BURN.

Lack of Water to Fight the Fire Nearly Results in a Fearful Catastrophe—Rescue Finally Effected by Means of the Air Shaft.

Carlinville, Ill., Jan. 3.—One hundred men in the mine of the Carlinville Coal company had a narrow escape from death Monday. The company's shaft caught fire at 9 o'clock by a can of lubricating oil being heated on a stove in the top of the tipples. A strong southwest wind fanned the flames to all portions of the wooden parts, which cover an acre of ground. The fire company was powerless, as there was no water in the mains. The burning timbers and fired coal tumbled into the shaft.

The 100 men were imprisoned below. The air-shaft engine, seldom used, refused, for a time, to work. A panic ensued below, where the air had extinguished the flames on the lamps, leaving the men in total darkness. They were scattered over a radius of three miles. Suffocation was narrowly averted. A scene indescribable took place on the top among the women—mothers, daughters and sweethearts of the victims. The men were finally released from the mine unharmed. The loss will aggregate $10,000; $5,000 insurance.

Owing to recent troubles between employees and employers the structure may not be rebuilt. There is only a small supply of coal on hand in the city. A suit will follow between the city and the water company, as this is the second large fire caused, it is claimed, by the failure of the company to supply water.

The entire force of 100 men went to work as usual at 7 o'clock. Some of them who were working in the east leads of the mine, discovering that the air was foul, returned safely to the top. When the flames started the engineer quickly reversed the air, forcing it down the safety air shaft through the main leads of the mine up to the entrance, preventing the fire from entering the mine. Fortunately a stiff breeze was blowing from the south, which aided in saving the engine which furnished air to the imprisoned miners.

Two Illinois Regiments to Go. Savannah, Ga., Jan. 3.—The last troops of the Seventh army corps, regularly attached, are expected to leave here today for Havana. The movement will be the largest that has yet been made. Three regiments, comprising the Second brigade of the first division, will sail. Two of these regiments are the Fourth and the Ninth Illinois and the third is the South Carolina. The two Illinois regiments will sail aboard the transport Mobile.

Smallpox in the Camp. Havana, Jan. 3.—Smallpox has made its appearance in Camp Columbia. Sergt. Fred Jones of company I, One Hundred and Sixty-first Indiana, who showed unmistakable symptoms of the disease last Thursday, is now confined under guard in a tent 200 yards in the rear of the regimental camp. So far his is the only case. Surgeon-Major Wickliffe Smith believes he will be able to stamp out the disease before it spreads in the camp.

Damage by Fire in Bremen. Bremen, Jan. 3.—Fire in the warehouse district of Bremen Monday caused a loss of 1,000,000 marks ($242,000). The only building destroyed was Jung & Holler's tobacco warehouse, but considerable damage was done to the property of J. M. Glindemeister, commission merchant; Emil Stuermer, a large dealer in wines, and one or two tea and tobacco houses adjoining. All are fully insured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Fearful Gale in the Channel.

London, Jan. 3.—A fearful gale is sweeping the Irish channel and the seas are terrific. The Holyhead harbor is full of shipping, and some of the vessels have dragged their anchors and gone ashore. There are numerous wrecks along the coast. The Holyhead lifeboat has rescued the crews of three small vessels.

Heavy Taxes Cause a Riot. London, Jan. 3.—A dispatch from Rome says a mob of 4,000 people destroyed the internal-revenue sentry boxes and stoned the gendarmes around the Niscemi, Sicily, as a protest against the excessive taxation. A number of persons were wounded.

Iglesias Will See Victoria.

London, Jan. 3.—It is understood that the visit here of President Iglesias of Costa Rica, who will arrive in London on Jan. 9, will be official. The government is arranging for his reception and entertainment. The president during his stay here will visit Queen Victoria at Osborne.

Largest Coinage Since 1890.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 3.—A statement of the coinage of the United States mint in this city for the year 1898 shows that the output for the year just ended was the largest since 1890. The total number of coins made was 100,258,433.

Four California Miners Killed.

Janestown, Cal., Jan. 3.—Four miners were killed in Jumper mine Monday by the dropping of a skip, which Explosion in State House. Denver, Col., Jan. 3.—Miss Nettie Ziegler, clerk to the state board of agriculture, was probably fatally burned by an explosion of gas at the capitol. Mrs. Martha A. Shute, secretary of the board, was also severely burned. The two women ran screaming from the building, with their clothes and hair afire. M. S. Crawford, who was passing, extinguished the flames, and, in doing so, sustained burns. Gas had been escaping in a vault, and the explosion was caused by striking a match. The capitol was not much damaged.

Not to Sell Delagoa Bay. Lisbon, Jan. 3.—King Carlos opened the cortes geras, or two legislative chambers, the house of peers and the chamber of deputies, Monday. His majesty said he greatly sympathized with the czar's disarmament proposals and made a reference to the colonies which apparently disposes of the rumors of the sale of Delagoa bay. He said: "It is not sufficient to preserve our colonial domains in their complete integrity as the sacred heritage of the nation, but they must be developed as the solid basis of our economic regeneration."

has often been styled the cause of death in persons who have long lingered in disease. The amazing work which the heart regularly performs would certainly pre-suppose its breaking down. The most active climber can raise himself 1000 feet in an hour, the best locomotive 4000 feet and the heart 20,000 feet. To preserve its energies in full glow and force, Pabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic, will act as an effective and practical fuel. No steam without fire. No energy without food. No staying power without rich supplies of blood. The heart is the great engine of the body. Keep it going, steadily, easily, persistently, unto a ripe old age.

I have used your Malt Extract where a "Best" Tonic is needed to be indicated, and the results have proved quite satisfactory. Where a malt preparation is required, I shall not hesitate to suggest the use of your preparation.
